STARTING WITH QUARTER 2:

- In an effort to be more environmentally friendly and cost effective, progress marks and report cards will no longer be mailed home, except:

  - Elementary school students will still have their report cards distributed at Quarter 1 parent-teacher conferences, and sent home with students all other quarters.

  - Middle school students at risk of failing (D or F) will have progress marks and report cards mailed home.

  - High school students at risk of failing (D or F) will have progress marks and report cards mailed home.

- KUSD will print and mail Quarter 4 report cards for all high school and middle school students.

- All parents are able to see student grades on Zangle, or by requesting a paper copy from their school office.

- Teachers will continue to submit marks as previously required.
